Faculty Disclosures

SCP Health maintains the standard that its continuing medical education, in accordance with standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), be free of commercial bias and reflects balance, objectivity, scientific rigor and the highest educational value. All faculty, planners, and others in control of CME-sponsored activities are required to disclose to the audience the existence of all financial relationships with ineligible companies* within the prior 24 months. Faculty must disclose these relationships, whether or not there is direct commercial support for the CME activity. All relevant financial relationships between individuals in control of educational content and ineligible companies must be identified and managed to ensure they do not introduce commercial bias into the education.

*Companies that are ineligible to be accredited in the ACCME System (ineligible companies) are those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.

Disclosure: The course planners, faculty, reviewers and CME Committee members listed below indicate that they have nothing to disclose:
